AT SEATTLE PUBLIC THEATER

SEAT NAMING CAMPAIGN

Join the fun at Seattle Public Theater by sponsoring a new seat in the Bathhouse Theater! You can honor your family, a friend, even your company!

Why New Seats? The Bathhouse theater is full of history, but our seats are a little too historical! We inherited our current seats from the Ridgmont Movie Theater in 1997. We think the seats may be over 80 years old. As much as our patrons and people like you love our fabulous productions, old, dreary seats can distract from a stellar theater experience.

Why Name a Seat? When you name a seat at Seattle Public Theater, you have the unique opportunity to enrich the community and make viewing our productions more enjoyable. At the same time, you allow us to honor you and your contribution by placing a permanent plaque in your name, or a name of your choosing on the brand new seat. Imagine how wonderful it will be to sit in comfortable new seats.

Thank you in advance for considering contributing toward this necessary improvement. And we hope to see you at one of productions soon. We're saving a seat for you. We plan to install the seats in fall 2011—so reserve your seat now!
