

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Education Leadership Circle

Your company will enjoy the many benefits of sponsoring a youth drama production. These include, but are not limited to, listing in the year's Seattle Public Theater program magazines, recognition in pre-performance introductory remarks, company name printed in program, and company name listed on sponsor wall display.

Program Ad

Your company will enjoy the benefit of having an advertisement displayed prominently in the year's Mainstage production programs. Ad sizes range from business-card size to the full back page.

Play-A-Part Auction

Your sponsorship underwrites the cost of the event, allowing the money raised to go directly to support theater programming. As a sponsor, you will enjoy many benefits including an advertisement in the Play-A-Part Auction catalog, your logo printed on the auction invitation, and your logo on the Seattle Public Theater website.

Mainstage Productions

Your company will enjoy many benefits during the year's Mainstage shows. These benefits include your logo being displayed in the lobby, on the Seattle Public Theater website, and in the programs, as well as tickets to public opening nights and catered receptions with cast and crews.

For more information or to become a sponsor, please contact the Seattle Public Theater administrative office at 206-523-1370.

Why Become a Sponsor?

Seattle Public Theater's mission of Creating Community Through the Performing Arts includes you, our business and corporate community. As a Seattle Public Theater sponsor, you will enjoy the benefits of connecting with our highly desirable demographics of Mainstage subscribers and Youth Drama Education Program families, as well as networking with other business and corporate sponsors.

We invite you to join your community in supporting your local performing arts, and help to steward a local treasure: the historic Bathhouse Theater on Green Lake.

About Seattle Public Theater

Since Seattle Public Theater was awarded stewardship of the historic Bathhouse Theater over ten years ago, the theater has grown from a small touring company into the region's only mid-sized, thriving, nationally recognized theater company. This rebirth has demonstrated the success of combining superior scripts and skilled talent with an intimate theater space and an inventive managing/artistic team.

Come and visit our home—the historic Bathhouse Theater that is nestled on the west shores of Green Lake. We are easily accessible with free parking. When you enter our lobby you will be entranced by the charm of our intimate theater.

Our Mainstage season runs from October through June. We offer four professional productions as part of one of the most affordable subscription packages in town, plus two holiday shows. We spotlight Seattle's most esteemed talent, including some of the most exciting directors of the Pacific Northwest.

Our Youth Drama Education Program runs year long and offers free performances to the public by youth ages 9-18. Camps, classes, and workshops are offered for ages 5-18 directly on the Bathhouse stage.

We feel sure you will be amazed by what you experience here at Seattle Public. We invite you to join with other local businesses and individuals to support your community. Consider a sponsorship opportunity to keep these programs alive.
